Golight, Inc. introduces the Gobee™.

Culbertson, NE—August 12, 2009:

Golight, Inc. a leading manufacturer of remote controlled and handheld searchlights has introduced the Gobee™ wireless remote control searchlight. The Gobee™ offers the ultimate in safety, portability and ease of use meeting the demands of law enforcement and security personnel at a price that won't break the bank.

The searchlight rotates 360 degrees while tilting 90 degrees allowing you to deliver the bright, 1,000 lumen/80,000 candela light beam wherever you may need it. The wireless handheld remote offers 16 different security settings and has an effective range of 25 feet allowing use of the light from almost anywhere in or around your vehicle. The sleek low profile design minimizes overhead hazards while the flexible magnetic base quickly and securely holds to the vehicle's roof well up to and including highway speeds. The Gobee™ connects quickly to any 12volt dc automotive cigarette outlet and can be stowed away in its heavy duty nylon carrying case until it is needed.

The Gobee™ sells around $179 and carries a one year limited warranty.

Based in Culbertson, NE Golight, Inc. is a leading manufacturer of remote controlled and hand held searchlights for marine, outdoor, military, industrial, fire, law enforcement, automotive and agricultural applications.
